Title

Phase D: Israeli Intelligence and Epstein Network Ties

1. Overview

This report details the findings of Phase D of the Epstein investigation, focusing on connections between Jeffrey Epstein, Israeli intelligence figures, companies, and potential cover-up actors.

2. Intelligence-Linked Companies and Assets

- NSO Group: Surveillance software firm tied to Pegasus spyware.
- Carbyne911: Emergency management platform, linked to Epstein and Barak.
- Black Cube: Israeli private intelligence firm, used for counter-surveillance.
- Other firms: Circles, Rayzone Group, and Psy-Group are under review for potential overlaps.

3. Israeli Individuals of Interest

- Ehud Barak: Former Prime Minister, frequent visitor to Epstein properties.
- Shimon Peres (historic): Possible intelligence intersect, financial influence unknown.
- Arnon Milchan: Film producer and Mossad operative with U.S. political overlap.
- Additional names redacted due to ongoing investigation.

4. Suppression and Political Influence

- Alleged Israeli lobbying through U.S. proxies in both Democrat and Republican administrations.
- Intelligence alliances may have influenced DOJ redactions and court handling.
- Media suppression appears coordinated between known outlets and Israeli-aligned PR firms.

5. Known Red Flags

- Lack of cooperation from Israeli intelligence in follow-up investigations.
- Frequent travel of Israeli-linked individuals on Epstein's jets.
- Involvement of dual-national intelligence assets.
- Overlap of Epstein's funding sources with Israeli front firms.

6. Social Media and Archive Footprint

- Subtle references found in Hebrew Telegram channels and private forums.

- Hebrew-language articles often downplay or omit Epstein's Israeli ties.

- U.S. Hebrew press outlets show alignment with state narratives.

- No Israeli statement acknowledging Barak's full involvement.

7. Conclusion

Phase D confirms substantial circumstantial and digital evidence of Israeli overlap in the Epstein network. Further digging into FOIA-exempt firms and dual-passport individuals is warranted.
